for and in consideration of the sum of two hundred pounds the payment whereof is acknowledged hath bargained sold confirmed and delivered unto the said John Thompson his heirs and assigns forever two lots of land in the town of New London and designated in the plan of said town as follows to wit. One half acre lot number six whereon stands a two story house formerly called Meads Tavern; also one other half acre lot lying South of it and in the same position with it, being a part of lots numbered eight and forty five. To have and to hold the said two lots of land with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging unto the said Thompson his heirs and assigns forever; and the said Robert Snoddy and Sophia his wife for themselves their heirs and assigns doth warrant and defend the said lots or parcels of land against the claim of every person whatsoever, which may now or shall hereafter claim the said lots or any part thereof to the said Thompson his heirs and assigns forever. In witness whereof they have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.
